While we always strive to ensure our service is expansive and robust, there are some features that are not included or implemented at this time:

- We can only ship solid case-packed / single SKU per box FBA shipments ("Case-packed products" must be the Packing Type for all FBA shipping plans). No mixed SKU shipping boxes (No "Individual products" packing type for FBA shipments). Mixed SKU shipments are allowed for FBM.
- We will not ship any item considered an assortment via FBA. We cannot break up (no reverse kitting) manufacturer-sealed assortment cases. Any assortments ordered from EED must be removed from the FBA order and will be processed as a non-FBA order for regular processing and shipped to the designated ship-to address on your account. Assortment cases are allowed to ship FBM.
- Due to various manufacturer agreements and restrictions, we will only ship to Amazon and Marketplace warehouse locations in the United States.
- Individual item preparation (item prep and barcode labeling) is required by Amazon for FBA inventory. EED will apply the required item prep and/or Amazon barcode labels for a fee of $0.60 per piece. Poly-bagging, bubble wrapping, and other prep services are not available through EED. Labeling is not required or available via FBM.
- This program may not cover all items sold through EED. Some items on our website are not available to Amazon or Marketplaces. Please confirm when ordering online or with your sales representative.
- Amazon and Marketplace platforms have the right to limit sales in certain product categories and add additional fees or wait times for some items sold. Please contact Amazon or your Marketplace to determine if they will accept the items you are ordering from EED.
